BASKETBALL PLANS ARE FORMED

E.P.H.S. IS MEMBER OF NORTH LEAGUE

The twelve teams in the Jackson County "B" Association have been divided into two separate leagues. These leagues consist of six teams which are placed in either the north league or the south league according to their location.

Eagle Point is a member of the north league and will compete against Prospect, Butte Falls, Sams Valley, St. Marys, and Talent. These are the same teams which we played last season. These teams will each play the other twice. One will be a home game and the other will be a "road game." The winners of the two leagues will play for the county championship.

DATE FOR PLAYS IS SET

The four classes in the high school will present four one-act plays Tuesday, December tenth at eight p.m.

These plays will represent comedy, romance and adventure. They will be given as a contest between the various classes and will be judged by an experienced director.

ROGUE RIVER EXTENDS INVITATION

The students of the high school have been invited to attend a dance after the basketball game with Rogue River tonight. The letter of invitation was received at a most opportune time. Because basketball games have been scheduled for Friday nights, the students wanted to have a dance on a school night, much to the dismay and disgust of the teachers. The students had planned a dance for Wednesday night but called it off in a happy state of mind in view of the coming dance at the neighboring school.

XMAS VACATION IS DEC. 20 TO JAN 6

Students (and teachers) will be pleased to learn about the long Christmas vacation just coming up. School is to be out from December twentieth until January the sixth, making a total of sixteen days.

There are many indications of the approaching holiday season. One of these is the program of a neighboring city attempting to get people to do their Xmas shopping early. Every one knows that that won't succeed!

MAKING A STUDENT

Question to the teacher???????

Can you make a good student out of my boy or girl? The answer is, "No! You can if you will."

Mr. Hay says a student is like an apple tree which must be pruned, if it is to produce anything but small sized, sour apples in the orchard of life.

I think of the student as a delicate machine, which the parents have charge of. They must be good mechanics and must be able to put the machine together if they take it apart to repair it. There are some parents who can berate and schold the child for its shortcomings but they cannot, and never do offer any constructive help to them.

Do you want to keep your little human stress pruned, and the little human machines in good working order?

Here are some facts that might be worth considering if you want to make a real Student out of your little boy or girl. Start correcting their habits before they are out of the house.

Do not expect the teacher to train the child in habits of industry if you do not train them the same way at home.

If you want them to succeed, they must learn the first rule of business, "Courtesy." That is a factor that begins when they are a few years of age.

Guard their personal habits, their habits of eating, sleeping, thinking, talking, even the habit of walking-----toward the right road in life.

Can you tell when your child should come to bed. Some of the parents cannot call the children for they do not know where they are; they cannot even call the children their own, for they are not at home enough to make a home for them, and call them their own.

Would you like to have the neighbors children talk about you the way you allow your child to talk about the neighbors? Sometimes you would have to say No!

In summary we may say:

This article is not for any particular person or persons. It is merely supposed to cover the ground and fit every type of parent from the best to the worst.

Courtesy begins in the home.

Idleness begins in the home.

The child's sense of fairness is cultivated in the home.

Do not expect the teachers to be better parents than you are.

Poverty does not hinder your success with your children. The child is a walking mirror of his parents. Make the mirror reflect good judgment, love, understanding, patience, true devotion to your child; yes--let your home be the happy source of true fatherhood, and one of divine motherhood! It will not be genius that makes your home successful in this educational venture; it will be true devotion to duty, and faithful adherence to rules of common sense. (Mr. Bushnell)

SENCE AND NO-SENCE

I see a few new romances blooming. There's a very good example of one of our modern romances, Dorothy Young and Dean Chamberlain. First they went to school together; they grew up side by side; he never knew he loved her till her rich uncle died. Paul Cushman and Lola Hise are a bit of the old fashioned type. First he kissed her then they parted. He was so filled with ecstasy that he fell over a fire hydrant and she ran into a tree getting into the house.

Miss Olson let the cat out of the bag much to her dismay in World History. She stated to her pupils that she didn't care anything about dates but she did care about men.

Mr. Hay-"Are there any feet in town any bigger than yours Sandy?"

Sandy-"Only one pair. Mr. Bushnell has to pull his trousers over his head."

Do you know why Irving Waigh is like a Louisiana negro? He is always hanging around his sugah-plantation!

GRADES PLAN TO PRESENT PLAY

The honor roll for the 7th and 8th grades is as follows: Joy Bushnell, Buddy Arens, Vivian Mulhollen, Marjorie Campbell, and Donald Scott in the eighth grade; and Edward Kimmel, Billy Young, and Dorothy Stanley in the seventh grade.

"Entertaining Sally" is a play which is to be given by the seventh and eighth grades as the part in the Christmas program.

The play tells of Grandpa Morrow who tries to take part in all the activities that his young granddaughter, Sally, is engaged in, in spite of his rheumatism.

We hope it will be as entertaining to the public as the name of the play itself.

Walter Rein: "Are you doing anything tonight?"

Joan Millard: (eagerly) "No, nothing at all."

Walter: "Gosh! What a waste of time."

Leslie: "You know I bought my whiskers on the installment plan."

Bonnie Bea: "How was that?"

Leslie: A little down each month.

Everyone in the freshman class seems to have recuperated from the effects of the Thanksgiving dinner and are all back O.K.

Here's whats happening around school.

Bodie Miller-- Returned to school to stay? After a taste of Prospect we hope he is glad to be back to dear old E.P.H.S.

Catherine W.--Trying to learn how we say "Junior, where have you been?" with the right movement of the jaw---for the play.

Clayton C.--Trying to do his Business and English in Math. class-but always getting caught.

Don Kimmel-Taking pride in his nick-nacks in the work-shop.

Dorothy Lopez-Drawing pictures in her spare time-----very good ones at that.

Elva C.--Obeying orders very nicely but still slightly bashful.

Eugene B.--Taking a good deal of pride in showing his new pen and pencil set around to everybody to see the admiration in their eyes.

Gordon S.--Resigning as class reporter after doing a very nice job.

Liela D.--Still trying to act bashful in Business.

Lola H.--Still playing the part of the bashful young lady who doesn't like to have her picture taken.

Paul C.--Still trying to do as well as D.L. does in drawing pictures.

Mr. Bushnell--"Audrey, you are going to have to bring an apple if you expect your grades to get better."

Eddie--"What do you want me to do, bring a whole box?"

G.A.A. MEMBERS ARE INITIATED

The week before last all the newly elected G.A.A. members suffered initiation for three days.

The first day they had to wear their clothes wrong side out and backwards besides having their beauty repaired. On the second day it was a little worse, for they had to wear long dresses, spectacles, bedroom slippers, and their hair done up in great-grandma style. The peak came on the third day. The poor girls had to perform in front of the whole assembly. Margaret Henry was the first one called, and she had to sit in a pan of water (believe it or not.) Then all of the girls had to sing "Here we go-round the Mulberry Bush." When that was over, Frances Davidson had to propose to Sandy Clave, Betty Trueblood to Irving Haight, and Dorothy Young to Walter Rein. All the girls were accepted.

The girls decided it wasn't so bad after it was all over, because they were welcomed into the G.A.A. by a speech from Martha Able at the party given in their honor on Friday, Nov. 15. Delicious refreshments were served and all had a nice time.

Those who were initiated into the G.A.A. are as follows:

Reva Chestnut, Mildred Westcott

Betty Trueblood, Leilla McGraw, Joan Nussbaum, Dorothy Young, Margaret Henry, and Frances Davidson.

MUSIC NOTES

BUCK TAYLOR-Forever tooting his own horn in some girl's ear.

JOAN HOLMES-Badly frightened in a horrible dream by seeing a thousand-legged worm on her bed; Upon awakening, she found it to be her Clarinet.

LUCILLE VIEAUX-With a bad case of saxophobia.

EDITH HOEFT-The girl with the silver tooter, wishing she had a boy suitor.

SAMMY COY-Disgusted with his drum solos, and trying to find an excuse to not be present for rehearsal.

DOROTHY YOUNG-Absent-mindedly playing "Nobody's Baby" when Mr. Millard announces "We will now play 'Majestic Overture.'"

LEILLA MCGRAW-Wondering whether her ailment is hum-drum, ear drum or snare drum.

JOAN MILLARD-Trying to find someone who will trade a bicycle for her saxophone.

MARIE DAVIDSON-Wondering why there has to be such things as sharps and flats in music.

MARY HARNISH-Trying to decide whether she prefers the "Squeeze Box" to the bass drum or not.

HOMEMAING CLASS IS PROGRESSING

There are now nine students in homemaking class, and these are coming along nicely with their projects. They have finished their scrap books which contained pictures or samples of color harmony and how to remove stains. Their next project was something to be done by hand. Most of the girls made clothespin bags or laundry bags. Their next project will be to make an apron with lots of bias tape trim. After that they are going to make a blouse or something more difficult.

SOME MORE NEWS ITEMS

Well, the G.A.A. initiation is finally over. Out of our class there were several girls chosen to be in it. Those chosen were: Joan N., Dorothy, Margaret, Frances, Leilla, and Mildred.

We have missed Leilla the past few days and we hope that she will be back with us soon.

A smaller building of the same type as the Jackson County Highway's building is being erected on the Don Brittan property adjacent to the county building. George Holmes and John Smith are the contractors. After completion the building will be occupied by the State Highway Maintenance Department under a lease.

CAMERA CLUB IS SUCCESSFUL

Having had a great deal of success, the Camera Club is gaining in popularity. By teaching several members the art of printing and developing, the organizers are able to spend more time on making equipment.

The latest thing made was an enlarger which was needed by the club. With this they can enlarge negatives and also make photographs. These can be produced for a small cost.

The club members are now making the equipment necessary for taking inside pictures.

Passenger (leaving the street car)--This car serviced is always over-crowded.

Conductor--You had a seat didn't you?

Passenger--Yes, but my wife had to stand up all of the way.

Excitement flushed little Hector's countenance as he pointed his fork at the wriggly little worm in his salad.

"Oh, Mother, I see a vitamin."

SENIOR NOTES

Eddie Hopes to be president when he gets big enough, old enough, and brains enough. He figures that after the school adopts the constitution he will qualify.

Sandy Arguing with Miss Olson about when they, the Seniors, can practice the play. Thinks play practice is more important than English.

Lucille Hurrying hither and yon doing N. Y. A. work.

Joan The only senior getting a one in the English test of Tuesday.

Willard and George The only Senior boys out for basketball this year. We all hope that they're the stars of the team.

Martha Dreading the day that the Sociology class has to give talks.

Reva Getting over the G.A.A. initiation all right. She had to wear paint on her face, rags in her hair, and a gay dress from the 90's.

Martin The ever famous orator and artist.

Marie Going to be a beauty operator up in Mars in 2000.

Audrey Going to teach the immigrants the American language in 1955. She believes that New York will be a good place to start.

JUNIOR NEWS

Our play, "Advertising For A Husband," is coming along pretty well. By December tenth it should be in good shape (we hope). You'll simply scream when you see bashful Charles, our Russian count, making love to an adventurous, pretty maiden and the athlete, Irving, reciting his poetry of love.... Sounds good doesn't it?

Our class wishes to express sincere sympathy to two juniors, Mary Harnish and Buck Taylor, whose grandmother passed away Thursday morning.

The Juniors are still taking Civics good naturedly although we do have a tough time in class and have to have special classes different periods of the day. I do hope we live through it!!

Harry Hoping that he doesn't fail in any of his subjects, for he wants to get through in a half a year.

Elmer Still carrying the mail an arriving at school shortly before noon.

Louis Back in school and looking fine.

PERSONALS

Lyle Smith, a graduate of the Eagle Point High School, who joined the Army, spent his Thanksgiving holiday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Smith.

Friday the 15th, Shady Cove school had a school carnival. Everyone enjoyed themselves and the school made quite a bit of money.

Lawrence Osterhout, a former E. P. H. S. student, along with Robert Loeffler and Nancy Morrow of Medford, was awarded the Phi Kappa Phi freshman honor for scholastic achievement at O.S.C. last week. These students are sophomores in school.

Betty and Jim Lindsay and parents went to Lakeview to visit friends over the Thanksgiving holiday.

Some Gold Hill Grange members were welcome visitors at the Eagle Point Grange Tuesday, November 19.

Dorothy Young's great aunt, Mrs. Pearson, from Portland, Oregon, visited here over the Thanksgiving holidays.

Leon Kubli is a new student in Mr. Dickson's room. He is in the sixth grade.

Coach Dickson went home over the holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Lawson of Reese Creek went to Oakland, California, for a two weeks' vacation.

The Millard family and the Turner family of Shade Cove enjoyed their Thanksgiving dinner with Mr. Link also of Shady Cove.

Everyone was glad to see Bob Arens, a former resident of Eagle Point, who is in the National Guards at Camp Murray, was home for a two days' leave two weeks ago.

Mr. Wilhite caught a bear last Monday. For awhile during the struggle, he wasn't so sure who was the captor and who was the captive.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Tucker of Rogue River, former residents of Brownsboro, visited their daughter, Mrs. P. A. Henry and family. Other guests at the Henry home were Mr. E. Tucker and sons of Gold Hill.

We extend our deepest sympathy to the relatives of Mrs. Mary Taylor, who passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ray Harnish, last Thursday morning.

Mr. Taylor and Willis were called home from Kelse, Washington, on Thanksgiving day because of death of Mr. Taylor's mother. On the way home they picked up Earl Harnish at Camp Murray.

LOCALS

Mr. H. A. Walker came to school last Monday and took a dozen books out of the high school library for rebinding. It seems that some books are actually used-or misused--which?

The funny picture man called at the school last week, but Mr. Bushnell wouldn't let him in because our school already has photo service.

RECREATION CLUB EARNS MONEY

The big event at the Lake Creek Grange Hall Sat. night netted $28 after all expenses were paid. The Recreation Committee considered this a good profit.

The two-hour program was put on by the Lake Creek, Lost Creek and Brownsboro schools. Eagle Point was also well represented by Miss Olson, who gave two readings and Mr. Hay, who played two tunes on his saw.

After the program was over, the Recreation ladies sold refreshments in the basement.

Afterward the benches were moved back and games were played until 12:30.

Do you know that the Coach lost a bet and had to run around the gym floor ten times?
